Hair Stylist's Unique National Tour Will Benefit Local Shelters

Haircuts for a Cause: BarkAID 2017

Overland Park, Kan. (August 30, 2017) — Renowned hair stylist Patrick Lomanti has chosen local animal shelters Great Plains SPCA and Unleashed Pet Rescue to benefit from his unique national tour. His goal is to visit 50 states in 50 days, offering at least 50 haircuts, all to benefit homeless pets!

Lomanti will stop in Kansas on Wednesday, August 30 to offer haircuts alongside students at Paul Mitchell The School Overland Park. Haircuts will be offered from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. for a suggested $25 donation. Raffle prizes, pet-friendly vendors and adoptable dogs from Great Plains SPCA and Unleashed Pet Rescue will be available for meet-and-greets at this exciting event!

When: Wednesday, August 30
11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Where: Paul Mitchell The School Overland Park
8731 W. 95th Street, Overland Park, Kan.

Interviews and Video: Video and interviews with Lomanti, stylist students, participants and organization spokespersons will be made available throughout the day.

About Great Plains SPCA:

Great Plains SPCA is the Kansas City Metro's most comprehensive resource for pets and their human companions, serving more than 35,000 pets annually – more than any other animal welfare agency in the area. Great Plains SPCA, a No Kill shelter, works to save, protect and improve the lives of animals, while strengthening the relationship between pets and their human companions by providing humane sheltering, adoptions, and affordable spay/neuter and veterinary wellness services. Great Plains SPCA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and not the ASPCA but a local organization focused on being a society for the prevention of cruelty of animals.
