

Emily Wallace - Director of Animal Care and Adoptions

Emily Wallace joined the Great Plains SPCA family in August of 2014 while still in college. After joining the Animal Care team, she quickly realized her passion for animal welfare. Emily has held a variety of positions in the organization including Team Lead, Animal Care Manager and Shelter Manager prior to being promoted to her current role of Director of Animal Care and Adoptions. Emily's dedication and compassion to the pets and people of Great Plains SPCA has led to her successes in her various roles. Prior to working at Great Plains SPCA, Emily studied at the University of Central Missouri, majoring in Ecology and Evolutionary Biology.

Emily is a life-long animal lover, having grown up with a variety of pets ranging from cats and dogs to birds and frogs. A Kansas City, Missouri native, Emily currently lives in Independence with her two dogs and three cats.
